

OLG School-All Family Survey Summary

Conducted in May-2016

1. 89% of families thought that OLG staff clearly explained where to find information about school policies, forms, calendars, etc.
2. 88% of the families say that the information they receive from the Parent-Teacher Conferences about the academic growth of their child is useful, and 65% say it's very useful or extremely useful.
3. 67% of parents say the amount of homework is just right. 30% say it is "somewhat too much".
4. 91% say that their child receives enough attention from the staff. 65% say "a great deal" or "a lot".
5. 84% say their child regularly receives the help they need from staff. 58% say either extremely regularly or very regularly.
6. 87% say OLG does a good job in considering individual needs of students. 63% say extremely or very good.
7. 63% say OLG supports their child's social development extremely or very well, 25% say moderately well.
8. 99% of parents say OLG supports their child's faith development. 90% say extremely or very well.
9. 97% say expectations of students are high. 78% say extremely or very high.
10. 98% of parents say OLG is preparing their child well for their next academic year. 78% say extremely well or quite well.
11. 95% of parents say OLG's system of evaluating children is fair or are neutral. 70% say very fair or somewhat fair.
12. 92% of parents say staff treats students fairly. 73% say extremely or very fairly.
13. 92% say staff treats parents fairly. 73% say extremely or very fairly.
14. 93% say the discipline practices are appropriate. 66% say extremely or very appropriate. 27% say moderately appropriate.
15. 94% of parents say OLG administrators create a school environment that helps children learn. 78% says extremely well or quite well.
16. 96% say their children feel safe at OLG. 86% say extremely or very safe.
17. 13% of parents are very concerned or extremely concerned about bullying at OLG. 60% are only slightly concerned or not at all concerned.
18. 96% of parents say that given their child's cultural background, OLG is a good fit.
19. 78% of parents say OLG gives the right amount of attention to its sports programs. 15% say "too little" and 6% say "too much".
20. 91% say communication is prompt and courteous between OLG staff and parents.
21. 93% say they are satisfied with the overall quality of instruction at OLG. 47% say it is "excellent" and 41% say "good".
22. 62% of parents say they have helped at OLG at least every few months, 29% say "monthly or more".